

British Council Australia

UK/Australia Season 2021-22

Terms and conditions of application

The Season

This is a cultural season organised by the British Council, taking place in the UK from August to November 2021, and in Australia from September 2021 to March 2022.

Eligibility

We are inviting UK artists and organisations to submit project proposals for inclusion in the Season which align to our theme, season dates, and locations. Projects should have established partners and funding in place, in exceptional circumstances Australian partners can apply on behalf of UK-based artists.

- Projects must align to the theme 'Who are we now?'
- All or part of the project must be presented in Australia between 1 September 2021 to 13 March 2022.
- Projects must demonstrate excellence and innovation in the UK cultural sector.
- Projects across all art forms are welcome to apply.
- Projects are not limited to touring works, they can include: residencies, a festival focus, symposia, workshops, site-specific work, digital work, exhibitions, and broadcast.
- Projects must be financially viable with sufficient resources in place.
- Applicants may submit multiple proposals, but can only apply for small grant support towards one project.
- Only organisations may apply for small grant support.
- Applicants do not need to apply for small grant support in order to participate in the Season.

Opportunity dates

The opening date of the opportunity is 9am BST on 7 July and the closing date is 5pm BST on 17 August. The British Council reserves the right to extend the closing date.

Any entry received before the opening date or after the closing date will not be considered. The British Council accepts no responsibility whatsoever for any technical failure or malfunction or any other problem with any system, server, provider or otherwise that may result in any entry being lost, delayed or not properly registered.

Successful applicants will be advised within 9 weeks of the closing date.

How to apply

The opportunity will be promoted through the UK/Australia Season 2021-22 website www.britishcouncil.org.au/UKAustraliaSeason. To apply participants must access the application link at www.britishcouncil.org.au/uk-australia-2021-22/how-to-apply/uk and then follow these steps:

- Accept these Terms and Conditions by submitting an application
- Answer the privacy question
- Answer the mandatory questions
- Submit the application form

Applicants are responsible for ensuring they complete the form fully and correctly.

Successful applicants may be required to provide evidence of eligibility.

Selection of successful applicants

The entries will be assessed by British Council specialist artform staff, who will select successful participants based on the quality of responses to the Application questions within 32 days following the closing date referred to in the eligibility section above.

Applications who wish to apply for small grant support will then be assessed by a panel of external advisors who will make recommendations on which projects should receive small grant support. Funding decisions will be made by British Council staff.

All decisions of the panel will be final and binding.

No correspondence will be entered into with the unsuccessful participants.

Funding awards cannot be transferred to any third party.

The British Council accepts no responsibility for failure to notify winning applicants or failure to deliver funding where such failure results from the provision of inaccurate contact details by the applicants or from the acts or omissions of any third party (including, without limitation, any internet or postal service provider) and shall have no liability to any applicant if it is prevented from or delayed in delivering any aspect of the opportunity or funding by acts, events, omissions or accidents beyond its reasonable control.

The British Council does not offer any insurance in connection with the opportunity. Each winning organisation is recommended to arrange their own insurance in respect of the opportunity.

Personal data

The British Council will collect and store the names and email addresses of all applicants and the additional details of applicants as anticipated by the 'How to apply' and 'Selection of successful applicants' sections above. The British Council will use this personal data for the following purposes:

- managing the relationship between the applicants and the British Council;
- communicating with applicants to answer their queries about the opportunity;
- communicating with winning applicants and arranging uptake of their grant;
- administering and delivering the Season.

Where an applicant has consented to the British Council doing so, the British Council may contact the applicant using the personal data collected to provide information about the goods, services, courses or promotions that the British Council offers.

By participating in the opportunity, applicants consent to their personal data being processed by the British Council in accordance with, and for the purposes set out in, this section of these terms and conditions.

The British Council complies with data protection law in the UK and laws in other countries that meet internationally accepted standards. You have the right to ask for a copy of the information we hold on you, and the right to ask us to correct any inaccuracies in that information. If you have concerns about how we have used your personal information, you also have the right to complain to a privacy regulator.

Publicity and rights

The British Council intends to publish the names of winning applicants on the British Council's websites, social media channels, press releases and other promotional and marketing material. In addition, the British Council may write and publish articles about the winning applicant's inclusion in the Season and/or grant. By applying to the opportunity, each applicant agrees to the use of their name and agrees to co-operate with any such publicity or marketing if they are successful in their application.

Applicants will retain copyright in the entry material that they submit to the British Council. By entering the opportunity each participant grants the British Council, free of charge, permission to use the entry material (including, without limitation, modifying and adapting it for operational and editorial reasons) in any media worldwide for purposes connected with the opportunity.

All rights in the British Council's name and logo, websites, Facebook pages, Twitter pages, press releases and other promotional and marketing material and all course and examination content and materials (together the "Council's Materials") shall vest in and remain with the British Council (or its licensors). By participating in the opportunity, applicants agree that they will not use, broadcast, publish, export, exploit, reproduce nor copy part or all of the Council's Materials.

Acceptance of Terms and Conditions

By participating in this opportunity, applicants are deemed to have accept these Terms and Conditions.
